

DMED 530: Internship Course

Fall 2026

Purpose

Designed to support students as they pursue or continue work in the digital media field by applying the knowledge and skills gained in the MDM program to real-world professional contexts. Students will develop essential career and workplace competencies such as job searching, communication, collaboration, and project management.

Leveraging the Course

This course is a resource.

Everyone's On Their Own Career Journey

- There's no single formula that will get you a job. It's up to you to identify what you need and reach out for it.

Be Proactive, Communicate Often

- Talk with your faculty member about where you need support i.e. mock interviews, portfolio feedback, or networking.

Course Format

- Combination of assignments, online discussions, check-ins, and synchronous Zoom sessions (there may also be guest speakers- optional).
- Students will self-enroll in one of five sections. Each section is led by a dedicated faculty advisor. Your primary faculty member will guide your progress and provide you with feedback.
- You're encouraged to attend office hours offered by all faculty.
- Online Canvas course - everyone will be added to one Canvas course
- Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (pass/fail)

Enrollment

Consider your professional persona, and the types of company or industry you hope to join.

- Section G100 – Vic Ong (NBR 3731)
- Section G200 – Thelma Wiegert (NBR 3735)
- Section G300 – Sherry Zhao (NBR 3736)
- Section G400 – Rock Leung (NBR 3737)
- Section G500 – Tiz Beretta (NBR 6709)

OPEN: August 10th

*there will be a cap at 15 students per section

Faculty Bios

International Students!

To comply with IRCC regulations and to legally be able to work full-time during the internship term, you will need to be working in a job that is related to digital media. You will also need to let us know!

More details to come...

THE INTERNSHIP COURSE

A BRIDGE FROM MDM TO WHAT'S NEXT

WHERE YOU ARE

MDM Core Competencies

Collaboration

Ideating & Innovating

Critical Thinking

Problem Solving

Communication

Leading & Managing

THE INTERNSHIP COURSE

Real-world experience.

Industry connections.

Personal growth.

We're here to support you.

Your journey. Your future.

You choose where you go.

WHERE YOU'RE GOING

Your Next Chapter

Launch your career

Make an impact

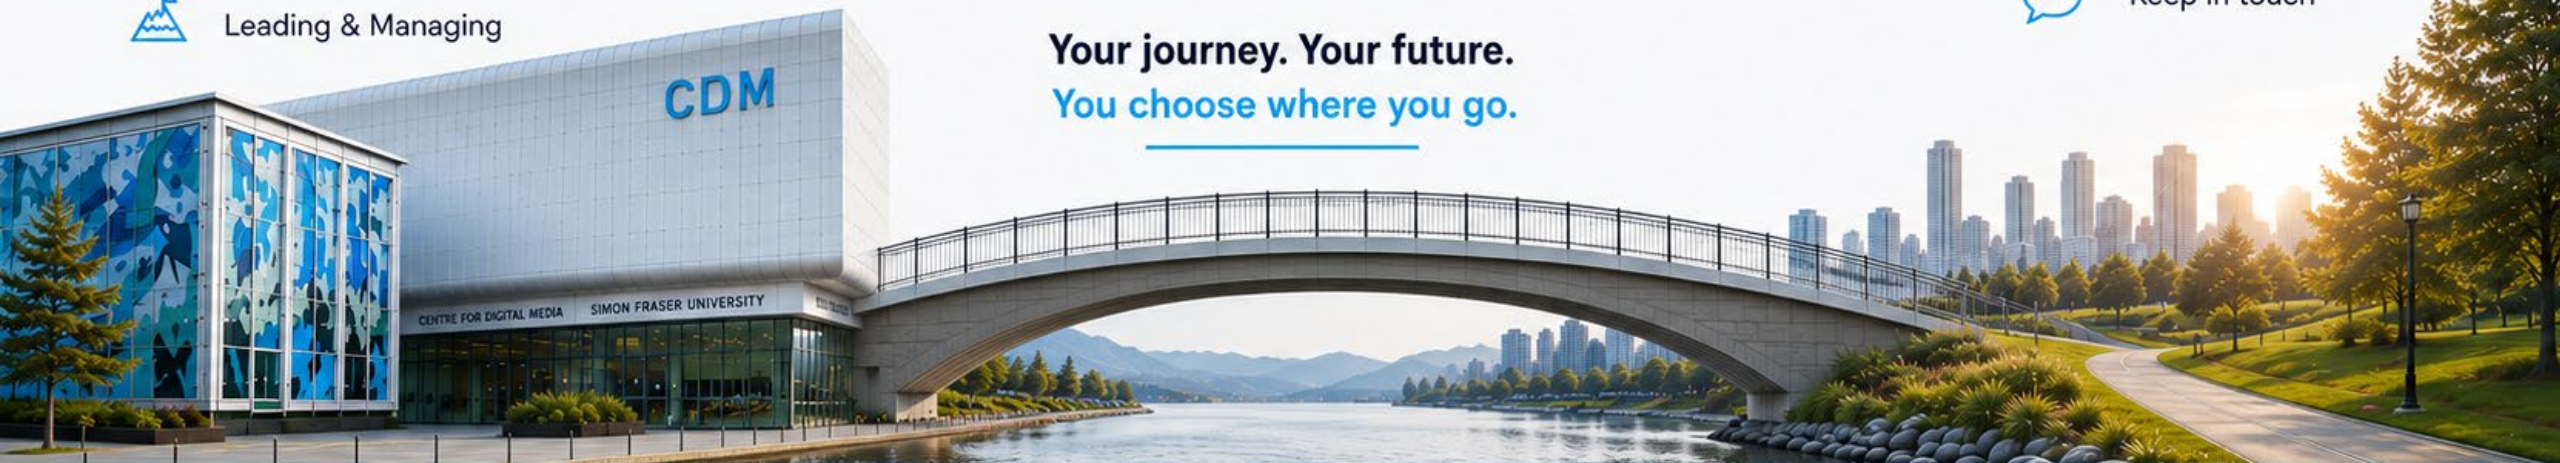

Keep learning

Shape what's next

Keep in touch

WE'RE WITH YOU

Supervisors. Mentors.
Resources. Feedback.
Every step of the way.

YOUR JOURNEY

Take initiative.
Seek opportunities.
Make it yours.

Final Panel Review Session

Please have your presentation from today ready for the review session!

Questions?